STEVENS POINT, Jan. 12th, 1857. MESSES EDITORS :- It certainly was a matter of great satisfaction to find (after a long, tedious ride from Berlin) quarters that would do honor, in the way of reception, to the most tenacious epicure that ventures into this northern region. Our host, N. B. Lloyd, has opened a house of the character that Stevens Point has long stood in need, and it can now boast of the best furnished and best kept hotel north of Ripon Nor is this the only feature of improvement visible in this thriving village. Tasty, and in several instances costly, dwellings have been erected, during the past season, and instead of the mushroom, temporary, habitations that heretofore met the and pleasant homes. The depression that prevails throughout the monied circles of the West is not apparenthere, but a general system of prosperity exists, and the lumbering merchants are pursuing their usual extensive avocations with as much confidence as ever. The amount of capital here invested in that branch of business alone is immense, and the majority of that interest is centered here. Stevens Point is truly the k y of the righly treasured store house of the pineries

For the Senticel. Audubon and the Snake.

Br G. W. C One day the Naterelist, Audubon Was through the forest tramping on, And, as was his woul, was musicg upon Those even a which our lives so checker; When, suddenly, something paraed over his head, And, away, with a wallsing motion, sped: But not to quick, but a poll of red, To the man to Ornithology bred, Proclaimed the gonus woodpecker,

With a genile, graceful, swinging bound,
the placed through the air and over the ground,
While the natiralist twisted his caput round Her precise destination to see. And he marked her passage through the air With no Johnny Raw-ish sort of a stare, But the quiet eye of a connoiserr, Till madam, then out on some business affair,

Porped into a hole in a tree. As a matter of course, without more ado. The Prenchman defied his super surtout,
With all the sangfroid of professional goul, And climbed for the bird he had holed. With struggle, and wriggle, and desperate squirm, To a competent height his way he did worm, To find at last he'd been "sold."

For coming ' forninst" the hole with his head, He was going to thrust in his hand for the red-Headed woodpecker, when, Oh, horror! instead, He found himself and that object of dread, A fine black snake, tete a-tete. Now, although a connoiseur in fowl.

Now, minough a connector in lowing the could'nt hang on there, "cheek by jowi," With a venomous "garpent," and play at second; So he dropped, at the risk of his pate. A comrade, at hand, of the Frenchman inquired It he was much frightened, or whether he tired,

That he dropped so plump from the iree:

Jupiter, "the great disturber of the system," is not apparently less than when in opposition, in September. This evening, at sunset, it will be about two degrees west of the moon, by which it was eclipsed in France, Great Britain, &c.

Uranus, which sets in the W. N. W. and Neptune in the W. hyS, although many times larger than the Earth, cannot be seen without the aid

at Cambridge, and perhaps balf a dozen others of similar size.

The following table contains the times of the settling of these planets, except Saturn, on Jan.

2d and 17th, and of the rising of the last on the Bridge at Kilbourn City.

The Bridge of the La Crosse Railroad at this place, is to cross the Wisconsin river at the west end of Broadway, as laid on the town plat. At this point the river is 200 feet wide, and the per-pendicular rocks on chall side are about stary feet high, with sloping braks at the top of the rocks rising twenty-five or thirty feet in a dis-tance of two or three bundred feet back. The whole is to be supported by the necessary abut-ments on the rocks, and the central pier in the liver—which pier will be nearly 70 leet high, chord of the bridge. The estimates for the work, aside from the masonry, are $50,000 leet of timber and plank, (board measure,) over $00,000 feet of which will be pine, and the rest mainly oak; and 80 tons of iron to be used in the construction. The whol work has been let to Mesers. Stone, Boomer and Boughton, of Chicago, for $50,000, to be completed on or before the first of September

Mr. Morgan, the Supermembers of the contractors for the contractors, has been here and contracted with Messrs Balley & Kuney, (two of our most thorough going mon,) for all the timber and lumber, to be delivered on the spot before the first of June next, and already at work procuring that Mr. M. Absorber grantingless of the

it. Mr. M. Alexander, superintendent of the masoury, is here, making preparations to get the stone on the spot as fast as the weather will permit. We have no doubt that the work will be completed by the first of September next. We will make only one additional remark in relation to this bridge. As the railroad is to cross the river at right angles, 22 feet above the versions were and each of contraction.

carriage ways, and as the carriage ways are 10 approach the bridge on a very slight grade and easy angle, entering directly under the R. R. pan at each oud, there can hardly be a doubt but this will be the easiest, safest and best ridge for teams to cross, of any over the Wis

Contous Reminiscences. - The Albany Atlas is puzzled by a correspondent who doesn't know what is the authority for the passage in the quarte adition of Gathrie's Goognaphy nublished by John Chambers, No 5 Abbey street, Publia, in 1789.

"All the country to the northward of this great river (Ohio) extending from Pennsylvania to the east, the lakes to the north, and the Mississippi

n the west, are intended to be divided by Congress into ten new States, viz: Washington, Metropotamia, Perilipa, Michigania, Illenoia, Chersonesus, Saratoga, Sylvania, Assinia, Polypo

umia."
We think the origin of the above is to be found

we think the origin of the above is to be found in Thomas Jefferson's original draft (1784) of an Ordinance for the government of "the paritors colled on to be ceded by individual States to the United States." The following paragraph from said ordinance will afford the light needed:

said ordinance will attord the figur needed:

"That the territory northward of the forty-fifth degree, that is to say, of the completion of forty-five degrees from the equator, and extending to the Lake of the Woods, shall be called Sylvania that of the territory under the forty-fifth and forty fourth degrees, that which lies westward of Lake Michigan shall be called Michigania: and that which is eastward thereof, within the peninsular formed by the lakes and waters of Michigan. POLICE COURT, JANUARY 18. BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Washington Summons, when arrested, proclaimed etf a "Tances Boy," that could "whip ha'f creation, and that he was from the "New England States," was brought up for being drunk and disorderly, and threatening to burn up the buildings occupied by Mr. Poliett of the Baide House. A night's ledging in the drunken cell had produced a wonderful effect. He was fined $15 00, and in default of payment, was sent to juil for 30 days, one Policeman less than "half creation" taking him mas Chadwick, drunk and disorderly, fixed $8 00. Edward Ryan, charged with resisting Policemen while engaged in their duty, was field for trial at the next term of the Circuit Court. He gave ball in the sum of $250.

In this case the Counsel of the defendant took occasion to impage the motives and to attack the character of Mr O'Byrne, whose only act was to try and make peace, and assist the Police in that act. The character of O'Byrne of a good, peaceable, and upright man and citizen. all in the Third Ward were like him, the Police might be safely disbanded to day. Another fact shown in this pa tial examination was, that when a riot was at its height, and several parties fighting, one of the Aldermen, when called amon to amist in quelling the riot, stated that he was afraid to go among the crowd. So tertified one of the E. Dillon and M. Delaney, charged with being disor-

Letters by the Asia, state that Mr. Villiers has declined the mission to the U.S., and hints at the probability of Lord Eigin being sent out. Washington, Jan. 15.

Senate—There was a long debate in the senate on the house bill for the relief of Mary Reside, proposing to pay her about $180,000, being a bulance due from the government to her late nusband for his services in carrying the mails, with interest from Dec. 1841. The case has been before Congress for 12 or 15 years and was favorably reported on by the Court of Jaims. The bill passed by a vote of 28 against 15, after an amendment striking out the allow-ance of interest. Adjourned. In the House, the tariff bill was discussed by Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, who said that a majority of the committee of ways and means desired, by the extension of the free list, to give incidental protection. The bill, if passed, will reduce the annual receipts more than ten million dellers. It was their intention to simplify the collection of the revenue and materially reduce the expenditures of Custom bouses. Mr. Boyce made a speech in support of the positions taken by the President in his annual mesaage. Washington, Jan. 18. A deputy of the Sergeant-at-Arms, of the House, left this P. M. for New York, to aummon witnesses to appear before the committee, to investigate alleged corruptions. Several members of the House will be examined to day. Two thousand dollars will be required to pay three of the companies of Kanaas Militia employ-ed in the late disturbances in that Territory. The returns of the other companies have not yet been received at the war department.

The news of the election of Cameron, as Sena-tor from Pennsylvania, over Forney, was rend while the House was in session. The intelligence soon spread and occasioned much excitement everywhere. The opposition members are delighted, and were seen heartly congratulating one another on the result. Letters from Gov. Geary, confirm the reports of perfect quietness in Kansas.

Mr. Brown, in the Senate, entered a protest against the legality of the election of U. S. Senater, a teller not having been elected by the Senate on the last day prior to the election.

THREE P. M. REPORT. LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

AFFAIRS ON THE ISTHUUS.

New York, Jan. 13, The steamer Geo. Law arrived this A. M. from Aspinwall, brings California dates of Dec. 20th, and upwards of $1,260,000 in specie.

The ships Independence and St. Many were larger to the control of the ying at Panama, and the Cyanne at Aspinwall, The Sierra Neyada left San Francisco on Dec. 20th, for San Juan, with a large number of re-cruits for Walker. An attempt was made, a few days previously, to sink her at her dock.

The Supreme Court of California has declared the entire State debt unconstitutional, excepting the $300,000, and recommends the adoption the debt by the Legislature, and that the question of repudiation be submitted to the peo-ple. No transfer of stock has been made since the decision. The people are opposed to repudiating, and meetings have been called in various parts of the State, to give expression to the accumption of the debt by the people. The amount is $3,000,000.

Mising news is favorable. Market dull. Oracgon dates are received to Dec. 11th.
